Subject: This Week's NIH Campus Food Offerings

It's a beautiful day for some outdoor eating. Please stop by our locations and grab some lunch. Spread the word and please make sure to wear appropriate facial covering and maintain proper physical distancing.

Outdoor BBQ – On Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday this week, a traditional BBQ menu including sides and vegetarian options, located at the front of building 35, from 11:00am to 1:30pm each day. To see this week's offerings, click on this link:

Food Trucks – Two trucks, one offering savory dishes and one offering desserts, rotating daily, from 11:00am to 2:00pm at the Building 10 south parking lot (10H). Please click on the links to see what is being offered today.

CRC Coffee Bar – Offering hot food, coffee, and specialty drinks from 6:30am to 8:00pm daily. Hot food includes a vegetarian option and rotates daily.

If we do not have enough patronage of these additional food options, the vendors may not be able to continue offering them. The food trucks in particular need your business.

Feedback on your experience at any of the operations can be sent to John Crawford at crawfj@mail.nih.gov. Please visit our food services webpage for the latest information. Thank you.

Thanks,
Tim
